Elora Dairy Summer Student

General Tasks:

Data management and backup

Helping grad students

Research-related equipment maintenance, troubleshooting and repair (anything from computers to freezers to Herd Navigator to Insentec feeders)

Feeding program database management

Fistulated cow care

Maintenance and organization of lab space

Maintenance of animal inventory records by project

Provision of general project info for tours

Acting as a contact point for grad students and barn staff for questions and problems relating to projects

Preferred basic skills:

Personality that lends itself to good mediation skills

Cattle experience

Confident with computers

Blood collection

Comfortable fixing things

Full time summer (~May - August)

Pay is $17/hour.

Please send your resume to Laura Wright lewright@uoguelph.ca