Murdoch Veterinary Clinic, located in city limits on the east side of Prince George, is seeking an associate veterinarian to begin canine/feline and equine work as soon as possible. We will also consider a summer employment position for a third year student to roll into an associate position once they have graduated in 2019.

Murdoch Vet clinic can offer you support and continued learning in your veterinary career, plus the following:

- Mentorship from our clinic owner/lead veterinarian and two associate veterinarians
- Fast paced, dynamic and comprehensive small animal and equine work
- Excellent work environment, work schedule (shared on call emergency with other local clinics, shared equine call within our clinic) and the opportunity to pursue your own areas of interest
- Up to date technology and diagnostic tools including ultrasound, digital radiology, haematology, ECG, endoscopy etc
- Benefit package including life insurance, long term disability, health and dental, plus generous pet benefits
- Annual CE credit allowance
- Generous base salary with production bonus opportunity.
- Highly trained and energetic technical support staff

Required:
- Eligible for CVBC licensing
- Communicative, detail oriented individual with exceptional interpersonal skills
- Valid Driver’s License
- Driver’s abstract

In addition to what our clinic can offer you, our community is the best kept secret of BC. Prince George is an urban community offering vast indoor and outdoor recreation opportunities, culture, shopping, and post-secondary learning.
