

BIOM*4090 Pharmacology

Fall 2020

Section(s): 01

Department of Biomedical Sciences

Credit Weight: 0.50

Version 2.00 - August 04, 2020

1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

Topics covered in this course include drugs used in the treatment of inflammatory, allergic, hormonal, infectious, neoplastic and hemorrhagic/thromboembolic disease. The focus will be on drug targets and mechanisms of action that explain therapeutic and toxicological effects.

Pre-Requisites: BIOM*3090

1.2 Course Description

This course is the second in a two-course introduction to pharmacology (the first being BIOM*3090). Drugs used in the treatment of inflammatory, allergic, hormonal, infectious, parasitic, neoplastic, and hemorrhagic/thromboembolic diseases will be discussed from a systemic perspective. By the end of this course students should understand the mechanisms of action of selected drugs and be able to relate these to both the desired clinical effects and common adverse drug reactions.

1.3 Timetable

Timetable is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

1.4 Final Exam

Exam time and location is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

5 Teaching and Learning Activities

A schedule of lecture topics will be provided on the course website.

6 Assessments

6.1 Assessment Details

Quizzes (10%)

Subject to change up to the start of the semester: Five on-line quizzes, 2% per quiz. Details regarding quiz availability will be provided on the Courselink/Desire2Learn course website. Automated reminders regarding the opening and closing of quizzes are provided by Courselink/Desire2Learn; students are responsible for attending to these and completing quizzes on time. Extensions will not be permitted for computer or internet connectivity problems; to avoid these risks students should not wait until the last available day to complete quizzes.

Module assignments/tests (90%)

Assessments have not yet been finalized, but the expectation (subject to change up to the start of the semester) is that assignments, open-book tests, or remotely invigilated exams will be completed for each topic during the semester and there will be no final examination.

7 Course Statements

7.1 Course WebSite

For course information, subject outline, quiz dates, and grades please consult the course website (accessible via Courselink).

Instructors will aim to post learning materials on Courselink by 7 pm the evening before each scheduled learning activity.

7.2 Course Evaluation

Students may be asked to complete a questionnaire on the instructors' on-line teaching abilities, either following their final learning activity or during the last two weeks of classes. This is part of the information required by the University to evaluate faculty performance for purposes of tenure and promotion. It will be administered by a third party and the evaluations will be delivered to the instructors only after the final grades have been submitted to the Registrar's Office. The department Chair will see all numerical ratings, but only those comments that are accompanied by a student name (electronic selection in on line evaluations).

8 University Statements

8.1 Email Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

8.2 When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. The grounds for Academic Consideration are detailed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Calendars.

8.3 Drop Date

Students will have until the last day of classes to drop courses without academic penalty. The deadline to drop two-semester courses will be the last day of classes in the second semester. This applies to all students (undergraduate, graduate and diploma) except for Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Associate Diploma in Veterinary Technology (conventional and alternative delivery) students. The regulations and procedures for course registration are available in their respective Academic Calendars.

8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website
<https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas>

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community—faculty, staff, and students—to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

8.7 Recording of Materials

Presentations that are made in relation to course work - including lectures - cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a student, or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

8.8 Resources

The Academic Calendars are the source of information about the University of Guelph's procedures, policies, and regulations that apply to undergraduate, graduate, and diploma programs.

8.9 Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>) and circulated by email.

8.10 Illness

The University will not require verification of illness (doctor's notes) for the fall 2020 or winter 2021 semesters.
