UPCOMING DEADLINES, EVENTS & SEMINARS

10. The Ontario Graduate Scholarship application is now available on the Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies website. The Ontario Graduate Scholarship (OGS) Program recognizes academic excellence in graduate studies at the master’s and doctoral levels in all disciplines of academic study. The program is jointly supported by funds provided by the Ministry of Advanced Education and Skills Development (‘Ministry’) and funds provided by the University of Guelph. The Ministry contributes two-thirds of the value of the award and the university provides one-third. (Important: Students must apply for OGS at the institution where they are/or plan to be registered in a master’s or doctoral program in 2018-19. The OGS is not transferrable; it must be held at the institution at which it was awarded.) Please refer to our website for complete details on eligibility and how to apply to the OGS at Guelph.
Deadline to Apply: January 31, 2018
Value: $15,000 total for one year ($5,000/semester for three semesters)
If you have any questions about the OGS, please contact the Graduate Program Assistant in your department, or send an email to the Graduate Awards Officers (grschol@uoguelph.ca)
